

Readers to the Rescue

May 15 through July 31
Summer Discovery
Reading Extension!

The Friends of the Library will donate up to $1000 in school supplies to support local students if the kids, teens, and adults of Anchorage read 150,000 minutes after completing their Summer Discovery logs.

Return this completed "Readers to the Rescue" log to any Anchorage Public Library location by August 1 to add your minutes to the total. Watch the wall chart to see how we are doing!

Finish your Summer Discovery log?
Plan on reading more this summer?
Make those reading minutes count!

School Supplies for All!

Help kids in Anchorage by reading and logging your minutes!

There's nothing like starting the new school year with fresh school supplies! Unfortunately, we know buying those supplies can be hard. Thanks to organizations like HUGSS and the Fairview Back to School Fair, families will be able to pick up bags packed with brand-new, free school gear—but they need your help! By continuing to log your minutes, you can help Anchorage Public Library reach their reading goal so the Friends of the Library will donate $1,000 to these wonderful organizations!

Interested in donating yourself?

Feel free to drop off new school supplies at any Anchorage Public Library location!
