Anchorage Public Library
Online Resources Library Scavenger Hunt (Grades 6+)

Instructions: This scavenger hunt can be completed online or in library using our computers Students may work together in groups and with their teachers. Librarians are available to give instruction on databases and online resources at a library location or for a group in an outside location (like a school, homeschool, scout group, church group, etc).

While this online scavenger hunt is primarily designed for middle school and high school students, questions that are appropriate for 4th and 5th graders are marked with an *.

Library tours and contact information for librarians can be found at www.anchoragelibrary.org or you can call the Youth Services Department at 907-343-2841.

Searching the Library Catalog: Start at the library website and type in the center search box! Once you get into the search, you can narrow down by location, item type (choose book), age (choose juvenile), etc.

Look up a book you have recently read or are interested in reading.*

Title: _____ Author: _____

Call Number: _____ What libraries own it? _____

Is it available or checked out? _____ Do we own the audio book? _____

Searching databases and resources: Library databases let you search books, newspapers, magazines, and more! This isn't Google, this is a safer; more reliable way to do your research! Start at the library website and choose "resources" on the top right menu. Under resources you can choose "Student Resource Center" or Databases A to Z.

Find your next book: Under the database list, choose NoveList, which helps you find books to read by using read-alikes, author suggestions and more.

Look up the book you looked up in the catalog in the first step. Click on the title, and then choose the tab that says "More About This Book" (under all the publishing info, by the reviews). There you will find more attributes of the book like genre, character, tone, writing style, and subject headings.

Write down some of the attributes here: _____

_____

For example: Genre: Fantasy; Tone: Sweet; Subject Heading: Superheroes

Click on one of the attributes (genre, tone, subject, etc) and find another book with that attribute. Use the buttons in the left column to be sure it is for your age range!

Title: _____ Author: _____

Start Researching: Under the database list, we are going to use World Book Encyclopedia which searches the World Book (you can also use World Book eBooks) and we will use Explora for Public Libraries to search in a lot of databases at once (all owned by Ebscohost).

Choose a country that you might want to research: _____

Look up that country World Book Encyclopedia Online*:
What is the population of the country? _____ The capital city? _____

Look up a news article about that country in Explora (Ebscohost). Use the column on the left to limit to "News" and/or "Magazines". You can also sort by date or relevance on the top.

Article Title: _____

News source title: _____

Article Author: _____ Date published: _____

Alaskan News: Find an article from the day you were born in an Alaskan paper. Go to the resources list and choose Access World News. On the right you can choose to search one of the highlighted Anchorage papers or go to the A to Z source list at the top and put in AK. After you have chosen your news source, use the calendar to browse to the day & year you were born!

Date: _____ Article title: _____

Using downloadable resources (eBooks): Start at the library website and choose
"Downloadables" from the Find It Fast section in the center. APL offers many ways to download eBooks, audiobooks, and more. For today we are going to use Alaska Digital Library which operates through a company called Overdrive and an app for your smartphone called Libby.

Browse in Alaska Digital Library until you find a book that looks good.
